NEXT PRODUCTION

Next week we are reviving "BIRD IN HAND," the charming Gloucestershire Comedy by John Drinkwater. The setting of this play is the Bar Parlour of The Bird in Hand Inn, which has been kept by the Greenleaf family for over 300 years. Thomas Greenleaf, the Inn-keeper, is a strict Conservative who believes that his children should remain in the station of life to which they were born. Unfortunately, his daughter, Joan, has different ideas, and has become friendly with the Squire's son. This leads to complications, and culminates in a first-class family row, but all the troubles are eventually cleared away with the assistance of a K.C. and other guests who are staying at the Inn for the night.

"BIRD IN HAND" is a play distinguished by admirable characterisation and delightful dialogue.

The part of "Thomas Greenleaf" will be played by Arthur Brough. Others in the cast will be:—Bunney Brooke, Elizabeth Hart, Peter Walter, Edward Waddy, Martin Bradley, David Conville and Trevor Baxter. The production will be by Michael Gover.

Why a Self-winding Watch?

The Rolex Oyster Perpetual, although it winds itself, was primarily developed because a self-wound watch is more accurate than a hand-wound watch. The tension on the mainspring is much more constant, much more even. And this accuracy is perfectly and permanently protected, even against dust and humidity, by the waterproof Oyster case.

See the Oyster Perpetual and many other superb watches by famous Swiss makers from our large stock of fine watches.
