MURDER ON ARRIVAL

By George Batson

Ladies and Gentlemen,

For the week commencing next Thursday we have pleasure in offering you an exciting mystery play entitled "MURDER ON ARRIVAL". This is the English adaptation by Peter Hoar and Gawn Grainger of the successful American thriller by George Batson which enjoyed a popular run in London at the Westminster Theatre.

The play has all the ingredients of a good murder story. Set in a cliff-top cottage in wildest Cornwall—a corpse within the first half-hour—and a nice clutch of suspects; "MURDER ON ARRIVAL" has some shuddering touches and plenty of thrills, and should provide a most satisfying evening of theatre.

Yours sincerely,

Richard Burnett
Peggy Paige
