THEATRE CATERING SERVICES

Throughout the day from 10 a.m. until the theatre interval we provide an extensive service to theatre patrons in our newly designed . . .

Salad and Sandwich Bar

We offer a wide variety of sandwiches (which are freshly made to order) and excellent teas and coffees. In addition, there is always a selection of home-made cakes and popular varieties of biscuits.

For your added enjoyment in the Sandwich Bar we carry a selection of confectionery and chocolates.

Ice Cream

An attractive range of Walls' Ice Cream Specialities is always available in the Sandwich Bar, and during the theatre intervals the ushers will serve ice cream in the auditorium.

During the intervals there is also a full coffee service in the Sandwich Bar, when soft drinks are also available.

Licensed Bar

Each evening before the programme commences and during each interval our fully licensed PROMPT CORNER BAR offers a wide selection of spirits, wines and beers. It is possible to order your interval drinks before the curtain rises and so avoid having to wait to be served during the interval when the bar can be very busy.

Outside Catering

Having a party? A busy snack lunch in the office? Packed lunch for a day out? We can provide the complete service for sandwiches and light salads for all occasions. With over 100 varieties of sandwich to choose from, and a wide range of salads and snacks, why not let us arrange this catering for you?

A phone call to the theatre with your requirements and we will have your order ready at your appointed time.

For something more elaborate (a birthday party perhaps) we will be happy to discuss taking all the hard work out of your planning and organise it for you within your budget!!

SENIOR CITIZENS' PRIVILEGE SEASON TICKETS

In association with the FOLKESTONE HERALD we have launched a scheme to give senior citizens a theatre treat during the repertory season.

By means of this scheme a senior citizen can see ten productions at the Wednesday matinee each week at a cost to the benefactor of £3.00 and at NO FURTHER COST TO THE SENIOR CITIZEN.

The true value of the ticket is £15.00 (ten seats at £1.50) and we invite good Samaritans to send us £3.00 (or dare we ask a number of units of £3?) to enable us to send a ticket to one of the many senior citizens anxiously awaiting their turn to have a theatre visit.

We will either send the ticket (which bears your name as Donor) to one of the senior citizens on our waiting list, or you can name the recipient to whom you would wish us to send the ticket with your compliments.

A theatre visit means so very much to the older members of the community, and the obvious pleasure it gives them is very apparent when one looks into the theatre each week at matinee time.

Why don't YOU help us to bring a little pleasure (ten times over) into the somewhat dull and uneventful lives of one or more of our senior citizens.

Below there is a form addressed to Charles Vance at the Theatre: send it along (or hand it in when you next visit the theatre) together with your donation. Your generosity will be greatly appreciated and acknowledged personally.

On behalf of a happy senior citizen somewhere in Shepway . . .
THANK YOU!!

To: Charles Vance, Leas Pavilion Theatre, The Leas, Folkestone.

Enclosed please find my donation of £..... (units of £3 only) towards the provision of Senior Citizens Season Tickets at the Leas Pavilion Theatre, Folkestone (all donations will be acknowledged).
