ARTHUR BROUGH PLAYERS

Welcome 3 Lovely Newcomers!

KATIE HEYLAND has just been appearing in "The Rasputin Show" in the West End and before that worked extensively in repertory including Stoke and Oxford.

FAY SHARPE has also appeared mainly in repertory and comes from Australia. She is thinking of returning there in the very near future.

JANIE BOOTH spent two seasons at the National Theatre, has appeared in numerous television plays, was in John Clements' second Chichester season, has been seen twice in the West End—in "PRIVATE LIVES" at the Duke of York's and "THE HIGH BID" at the Mermaid. Has also appeared in repertory at Bristol and Coventry. She plays Daphne Hancock in the radio series "THE DALES".

Theatre Club

There was a large response to our idea of a Supporters' Club, but because we had to revert to a weekly policy sooner than we had anticipated, there is not enough time left now to organise such a group for this present season. Many thanks for the splendid interest shown and let us hope that such a club may be formed in the near future, as it is obviously a very popular idea. All the names and addresses of the applicants have been filed.

“THE MAN”

by MEL DINELLI

Mrs. Gillis is a kind old soul and she feels very protectively towards Howard, a young boy who is earning money by doing odd jobs for her. But Howard is not all he appears to be and as the day goes on Mrs. Gillis has reason to become very scared indeed! This is a terrifying study in suspense and was a big hit on Broadway, in London and on screens all over the world when it was made into a successful film.

RENEE BOURNE WEBB and ALAN HALLEY return to the company to play Mrs. Gillis and Howard, and the cast also includes LOUIS CABOT, PETER STREET and INGRID EVANS.
