THE ARTHUR BROUGH PLAYERS

Introducing SALLY GOLDIE

Sally, who plays Gillian the reluctant witch this week, has been a welcome face in Folkestone since she first appeared here for the whole of the 1966 Season. She was born in Richmond, and trained at the Guildhall School of Music and Drama, and has played in many repertory companies, such as Windsor, York and, of course, her home ground of Richmond. It may surprise regular patrons, who have been seeing her in recent weeks playing her own age, to know that her favourite part was that of an 85-year-old—the sort of part, she complains, that she is not given very often.

Introducing PETER McCREDIE

Peter, a newcomer to Folkestone since BIRD IN HAND, plays the man from upstairs, Shepherd Henderson, which is just the sort of part he came over from Australia for. When he arrived six years ago, he found that he was more in demand as a singer than an actor, so he joined the George Mitchell Singers and played in Review at the Prince of Wales Theatre. His other appearances in the West End include understudying Danny la Rue in COME SPY WITH ME, so we can understand when he says that his favourite part was that of Babs in CHARLEY'S AUNT. Peter has played in many repertories in England, as well as everywhere in Australia and, with his actress wife, is expecting his first baby at any time, but preferably after BELL, BOOK AND CANDLE has finished.

So we come to the end of yet another season of Repertory at the Leas Pavilion. In October 1969 we shall reach our 40th anniversary in Folkestone—surely one of the longest runs ever! We cannot yet announce our opening date for next year, but hope to make it both interesting and exciting. We will gladly consider any suggestions for plays—both ancient and modern—which you, our audience, might like to make, which can be addressed to us here at the Theatre. Meantime, our grateful thanks, and au revoir.
