THEATRE SOUTH EAST PROFILES

Jonathan Prince

Appearing this week as the "Rev. Lionel Clement" in "Murder at the Vicarage", Jonathan Prince is a great favourite with Theatre South East audiences and has made many appearances for this company at the De La Warr Pavilion, Bexhill-on-Sea, the Congress and Devonshire Park Theatres at Eastbourne and, more recently, the Esplanade Theatre, Bognor Regis. He also went on tour with one of Theatre South East's first productions "Found in a Handbag", the musical version of Oscar Wilde's "The Importance of being Earnest" in which he played the leading role of 'Algernon Moncrieff'.

Jonathan has played in many well-known repertory companies throughout the country and especially enjoys comedy roles. He has appeared in the popular Whitehall farce "One for the Pot" in a summer season for Brian Rix and has been engaged for leading parts in the successful musicals "Salad Days" and "The Boy Friend".

He is no stranger to pantomime, having played in "Aladdin" and "Cinderella" for two successive seasons at the Grand Theatre, Swansea and has appeared as 'Wishee-Washee' in Richard Burnett's production of "Aladdin" at Bexhill. He trained for his theatrical career at the Florence Moore Studios in Brighton, where he later appeared in two plays at the Theatre Royal.

Ladies and Gentlemen,

Next Thursday we are presenting John Chapman's riotous comedy THE RIDES OF MARCH which relates the story of an ex-Army captain who once saved the life of a North African Sheik who, on his deathbed, bequeaths to the captain a share of all his possessions, including a bevy of highly voluptuous young Arab ladies.

When these arrive on the doorstep of his house where he already has a charming young American wife, the resultant chaos and confusion can well be imagined.

This extremely funny romp is ideal holiday entertainment and for all of our patrons who enjoy a first-class comedy, this is a play not to be missed.

DURING THE INTERVALS

The Theatre Bar (fully licensed) at the rear of the Stalls is open from 7.30 before the performance and during the intervals. Orders taken for drinks before 8.0 will be ready for the intervals. The Coffee Bar is open during the intervals for the sale of coffee at evening performances and tea at matinees. Snacks are also available. Ice cream, chocolates and sweets can be purchased from the attendants in the auditorium.
