Ladies and Gentlemen,

Next Thursday we offer you the recent successful mystery play entitled "IN AT THE DEATH" written by that well-established team of authors Duncan Greenwood and Robert King. This piece is extremely taut and ingenious in construction, with one baffling surprise following quickly upon another and leading to a most unexpected and dramatic denouement.

To all of you who love a really good mystery, we are strongly recommending you not to miss this one which is a most excellent example of it's kind.

DURING THE INTERVALS

The Theatre Bar (fully licensed) at the rear of the Stalls is open from 7.30 before the performance and during the intervals. Orders taken for drinks before 8.0 will be ready for the intervals. The Coffee Bar is open during the intervals for the sale of coffee at evening performances and tea at matinees. Snacks are also available. Ice cream, chocolates and sweets can be purchased from the attendants in the auditorium.

LEAS PAVILION PLAYGOERS CLUB

The Leas Pavilion Playgoers' Club has been formed to build up a permanent and regular audience for dramatic presentations at the Leas Pavilion; to foster links between those taking part and those watching the productions; and to promote interest in the living theatre by the media of lectures, demonstrations, social and other activities.

Members' Privileges:

Season tickets at reduced prices for specific eight-week periods.

Priority booking facilities.

Advanced and full information of all presentations. Club meetings and various special activities.

Regular Newsheet of local and general theatrical interest.

Membership Subscription: 10s per year.

Enrolment Forms from: Hon. Secretary, Playgoers' Club, Leas Pavilion Folkestone.
